President's Corner:

The snow is melting, and baseball season is just a few weeks away. As people begin to move outdoors again, opportunities for magic shows will increase. Events like block parties, company picnics, and outdoor family reunions are now being planned. It's time for us, as magicians, to get ready too. A big THANK YOU to John Luka for the great lecture last month. Normally, John's talent is so far above mine, that while I love watching him work, I find it very difficult to master the tricks he shows us. But this time, he showed some great effects that even I can do. Thanks again John. Our March meeting will be at The Magic Shop in Garden City. We will feature one trick/routine acts that the membership will critique, or not, depending on your wishes. So pull out that new routine, polish it up, and get ready. This is an opportunity to make a so-so routine good, or a good routine great. Take advantage of all the great magic minds in the club. If you haven't had a chance, visit our web site www.aamagic.org and check out the great improvements that Kurtis and Jeff made. WOW!

See you at The Magic Shop on March 14th.
