President's Corner

Halloween is like Christmas in October for magicians. All of our members seem to have shows galore this time of year. Maybe now, we can afford Christmas in December!

We have a lot going on at the AAMC. November 3rd, we will be at the VA Hospital in Ann Arbor doing our part to thank our returning heroes by performing walk-around for their "Welcome Home Event". Thank you in advance to everyone who's participating.

Our November 14th meeting will feature our annual Hank'sgiving Sale. Hank Moorehouse will be demonstrating and selling the magic from around the world. Many of his items have not made it to the States yet. This means you can be the first magician on your block to perform some of the new effects. It's like Christmas in November. I can't wait!

Our November meeting will also include one final round of nominations for officers, followed by the election that will seat our 2008 board. It's not too late to nominate someone or be nominated yourself for a position.

Prior to our Nov. 14th meeting (at 6:00pm) we will get together to hold a short Michigan Magic Day planning meeting. Plan on coming early to attend. Things are really coming together for our April 18th & 19th MMD. We have the Comfort Inn booked for our guests and our "night before" party. We have Patrick Page and Michael Woodward booked for entertainment and lectures, and should have the complete entertainment slate booked by our meeting time. There is still a ton to do, but we're making good progress.

See everyone on the Nov. 3rd for the VA event and again on the 14th (@6:00pm for the Hank'sgiving Sale (bring some cash). Jim Placido

Next Meeting

Our next meeting will be at our usual location: Faith Lutheran Church, 1255 E Forest Ave, Ypsilanti on November 14, 2007
