President's Corner

LET'S GET READY TO RUMBLE!! Our February 9th meeting will be one of our most important meetings of the year. Not only will we have a great lecture, but we will also be putting the finishing touches on our BIG SHOW at Allen Park High School in March, nominating our 2011 officers, and discussing our future home (Faith Lutheran or Wunderground West?). We have many energetic and great magicians in the club.

It's now the time to "show our stuff!" LET'S PLAY BALL!!

We will also have tickets for our March 20th available at the meeting (talk about a full plate). With March being one of the busiest months I can remember for the AAMC, we need to take advantage of our February 9th meeting to tie up the loose ends, and be ready to roll once the calander turns. Not only is this exciting...It's what we live for!!

Remember to bring some cash to our meeting for the lecture, magic purchases, banquet tickets and Big Show tickets for your friends and family. Ladies and Gentlemen, START YOUR ENGINES!! AND THEY'RE OFF!!!

See Everyone Feb. 9th at Faith Lutheran.

Secretaries Report 1/12/10

Marvin Mathena brought in his box of 'everyday items' to let us try out our skills of impromptu magic.

I did a couple simple rope tricks with a shoelace, Ken Magee did a nice ball routine, where he changed a white ball to red and had the white ball show up under his hat, (then into Pam Smith's jacket pocket. Mavin knew quit a few impromptu tricks like the pins with different color beads that someone chose one and he 'guesses' which one, plus a coin trick where the last coin moved on has an X, Tyler Sousa had a lot of good 'card' tricks to show. It was interesting and a lot of fun, it's always good to have something 'up your sleeve' when your away from the usual magic we're used to!

I received a letter from one of our oldest members, Harry Colestock, from Petoskey,MI He has been a member of the Ann Arbor Magic Club for about 40 years!

Harry has been doing magic for over 75 years and teaching magic over 60 years. He sent me a letter and an article from his local newspaper that they did on him.

Congratulations, Harry Colestock, on your achievements over the years and many more to come!

I'll have Jeff Walters put the letter and article on our website.
