October 2011

President's Corner

Halloween kicks off the busy season for all of us. Family and workplace parties dot the calendar, and that means MAGIC! It's a good time to break out those tricks, and even pick up a few new ones (at the flea market).

Our November 9th meeting will be our opportunity to give our Thanks back to Hank Moorehouse. We will all be performing tricks or routines that we either bought or learned from Hank. The hardest part for all of us will be deciding which ones to do. Although Hank is no longer with us, his personality and influence lives in each of us. This will be a great chance to display it. I can't wait!

See everyone on Nov. 9th @ Faith Lutheran for a great time. It's also a great meeting to bring a friend! (No charge for some great magic!)

Secretaries Report 10/12/2011

A lot of scary magic was shown for our October meeting!

The annual flea market/auction was a great success for our club, more people than the year before.

New Business

1. Nov. 9th meeting- We will have a broken wand ceremony for Hank Moorehouse and devote the meeting to Hank by doing his magic that we've bought through the years, (on Hanksgiving).
2. Christmas Party- Tuesday Dec. 13th at the church 7:00pm
3. March 25th- AAMC Banquet at Weber's Inn (more info to come)

Jim Ruth motioned to close, Jim Molnar seconded it, and it was passed by the membership.

Meeting closed 7:18pm.
